

[THE SOCIAL SCENE]

Blossoms for THAI passengers

Thai Airways International acting president Usanee Sangsingkeo, centre, executive vice president Captain Werasak Wiroonetch, third right, and vice president Chalermpon Kaewchinporn recently received 1,000 yellow silk-cotton Supannika flowers from Queen Sirikit Department of Sericulture director-general Sudarat Watcharakupt Laowitchaya, third left. The auspicious flowers, produced by the department's Farmer Group, were given to Royal First Class and Royal Silk Class passengers on all flights from Bangkok to China, South Korea and Japan on Mother's Day.