

[THE SOCIAL SCENE]

Safety award for THAI

Dumrongchai Sawangchareon, left, managing director of Thai Airways International's Cargo and Mail Commercial Department, recently received a Diamond Award from the government for an Outstanding Establishment Model on Occupational Safety, Health, and Environment at the National Level. Presenting the award was Todsaphon Kritwongwiman, right, deputy director-general of the Department of Labour Protection and Welfare. It was the ninth consecutive year that THAI has earned the honorary award.